The homework assignments were the most helpful in this course. They made me work really hard and think outside of the box, and prepared me for the exams.
The homeworks very much represented the tests, making it easier to study well.
he is great!
Instructor Ave many real life related topics relating to course materials.

He explains things in ways that are easily understood by students, rather than talking to us as if we are already professionals. He relates topics to real world scenarios, and it makes understanding and applying concepts far easier.
He is a great storyteller, for that he made understanding of the material much easier, giving excellent examples in class for needed clarity. He was always understanding of conflicts, since it is a summer class, which allowed me to better prepare for the class given my very busy work schedule.
Instructor gave many real life examples to help explain course topics.

A better explanation for some of the math was occasionally needed, however he could always clarify when asked questions in class.
